

When Jesus on That Bitter Night

KELLY CREEK

CMD

Gracia Grindal (b. 1943)

Daniel Charles Damon

♩ = 80

Unison

1. When Je - sus on that bit - ter night in which he was be -
 2. He gave his bod - y and his blood so we could live a - 3. I can - not com - pre - hend the love he spent for me that
 4. As bread is bro - ken, wine is poured, the crys - tal wa - ters trayed, knelt down to wash the feet of those with gain; his last will and his tes - ta - ment re - night. Its hor - ror seemed to o - ver - come the flow, I see the wed - ding of the Lamb come whom he would break bread, he showed by his hu - deemed me from my sin. How can it be that beau - ty of his light. And yet he washed me down to us be - low. And all of heav - en mil - i - ty how he would have us live: to he would give his life to ran - som mine? He clean of sin, gave me a fore - taste of the shouts its praise to God who is the light, whose do for oth - ers as he did, to serve and to be - lieve.

 o - ver - looked my treach - er - y and bid me come to dine. heav'n - ly feast where he will reign in glo - rious light and love.
 on - ly Son de - stroyed the pow'rs of e - vil that dark night.